Persons with material dealing with the state were asked to make the items available to the library to expand its reference facilities.

Plans were made for a tea from 4 to 5:30 p.m. May 12 at the new cultural center for friends of the library and their guests.

Mrs. Samuel reported the weekly book reviews she is doing at 1:15 p.m. each Friday on WROA will continue through this month.

Others attending the meeting were Mrs. Robert Hamilton, vice president; Mrs. William Pittman, secretary; Mrs. Katherine Wilson, chief librarian; Lloyd Griffith, G. P. Stanton, J.B. Goldman and Gordon Romanoff.

P. & H. Elects...

The fourth member of the quorum, Claud Graham of Beat 2, proposed or seconded all nominations.

After a series of discussions on pay and travelling expenses for commissioners, the resignation status of two trustees, bills to be presented to the Board of Supervisors for approval, a proposed letter from the new board president to Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., Jackson, the commission's engineers, and the appointment of a contact man to scout possible industrial leads and attend relevant conferences, Edward Schambach called for the secret session.

President Martinolich promptly asked Schambach if such a step was necessary and followed this by acknowledging the vigorous protests of the press who declared that the public had a right to a report on all of the proceedings conducted by a public body.

Schambach thereupon conferred with honorary board attorney Gerald Gex, present at the time the motion came forward, who, in giving an individual opinion, concurred that an executive session would probably be the best place to air the subject in question.

Martinolich thereupon agreed such meetings may be necessary but he was against public business being held anywhere but in public.

"I feel this particular phase of our business must be conducted in executive session in spite of any public animosity that may be generated," said Schambach.

Rester then seconded the motion, the board, except its president, voted in favor and the session was authorized.

Norton Haas and attorney Gerald Gex remained, excluded from the meeting chamber. With insufficient members present to form a quorum on its previous attempts, the board's last meeting took place in February when H. H. Shattuck resigned due to the failure

Dr.'s bag found, gun is missing

A medical bag and bicycle were among articles recovered by Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner's office within the past week.

The instrument bag, belonging to Dr. John F. Russell of Gulfport, was spotted in a ditch on Lakeshore Road by Robert Perkins of Clarendon Harbor. Perkins notified the sheriff's office and Ladner and Chief Deputy Rido Depree investigated. It was returned to Dr. Russell who was contacted by Gulfport police. The doctor found all contents intact with the exception, of a .32 calibre snub-nose Smith and Wesson revolver.

E.J. Werling of Bay Oaks Drive reported a bicycle in the water off the seawall on April 8, and Sheriff Ladner found the machine had been taken from the home of Walter James Phillips the preceding night.

Deputy Depree picked up Charles Samuel Sprigg, 42, on his job at MTO April 10, after a call from Asthabula County Sheriff Tom Fasullo stated that Sprigg was wanted on a bench warrant for non-support in Jefferson, Ohio. Sprigg was jailed when he refused to sign extradition papers, and Ohio authorities have begun proceedings to have him returned.

Sheriff Ladner also revealed that John Lee Campbell, of Gov. Paul Johnson to confirm his appointment. Addressed in secret session at that occasion by Beat 1 supervisor H.G. Dean, and later by Mayor J. Scafide, the commission on resumption of public business issued a statement from Scafide commending Shattuck for his services. No details of Dean's conversation were released although before the next commission meeting Arlie Strain, vice president of the group and Beat 1 representative, also submitted his resignation.

Trustee Graham was appointed by Martinolich to set up a meeting between International Paper Co. and the Commission. International Paper owns most of the land around Mulatto Bayou, center of the proposed industrial development area. The purpose of the meet is to attempt to iron out purchase price of properties involved.

Another appointment made by the new president was to Edward Schambach who was named industrial contact man. National Aeronautics and Space Administration satellite industries are to receive his special attention.

Other Rester, new secretary was given the task of presenting the commission's outstanding accounts payable to the Board of Supervisors. Included was an overdue bill for $4,000 to Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., and expenses incurred by commissioners. Trustees are eligible to receive $10 per diem plus travel expenses for meetings and services rendered the board.

On the question of the resignations of Shattuck and Strain, former president and vice president of the board respectively, trustees were uncertain of the stage such applications had reached. Strain's letter had seemingly been sent to individual board members and not to the board as an identity and, since no re-appointment from City of Bay St. Louis had been made to fill the slot left vacant by Shattuck and his resignation on having been formerly accepted the feeling was that technically Shattuck was still a qualified member.

In his letter to Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., Port and Harbor president Martinolich will outline the new and vigorous attack being made on the commission's temporary inertia. "This port means much to Hancock County," said Martinolich, "and from here on in we want to show continued progress."

On the recommendation of superintendent J. McCullough six new teaching staff members, accused by Depree on Feb. 22 for investigation of a break-in on U.S. 90, has admitted violating parole in Brownsville, Texas. He is jailed awaiting Houston, Tex. officers, who sent a detainer, as his parole was revoked.

Arrested and later released on bond following an altercation at Carrie Layne's, March 30, were Mrs. Audrey Jane Stacey and Charles Earl Brown, who were to have been heard in Justice of the Peace of Nolan Ladner's court on Monday night. Mrs. Stacey forfeited bond; Smith was charged with and fined for public drunkenness. Officers are still searching for his brother, Thomas (Whitely) Brown who is wanted on a warrant for assault and battery with intent to kill Marvin Scott, 27, of Waveland, Scott has since been released from Hancock General Hospital after treatment for knife wounds of the right shoulder and back.

It was also announced that persons wanting to take examinations for Mississippi driver's licenses, not held recent weeks due to remodeling of Bay St. Louis City Hall, may now do so from 9 a.m. until noon each Thursday, effective April 15; in the courtroom, on the second floor of the Courthouse.

Out-of-state automobile owners are allowed 30 days after moving here in which to purchase car tags and inspection stickers and 60 days to obtain Mississippi driver's licenses.

Trackers take triangle

15 individual track and field events were held at St. Martin school series at St. Martin on Friday. The same squad managed to run and jump their way into a second spot finish. The victory at Pass High saw Larry Johnson a triple individual winner placing first in the broad jump, shot put and discus throwing events. Don Wiltz doubled in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Wiltz, Glenn Rose, Charles Necaise and Tommy Blalock were victorious in the 440 and 880 yard relay events. Other individual winners for BHS were Jeff Phipps, pole vault, Charles Necaise, high jump, and David Necaise, 120 yard hurdle.

The Tigers totalled 68 points to 41 for the Pirates and 25 for D'iberville. Long Beach won Friday's meet with Bay High second. Other schools participating were Notre Dame, St. Martin, D'iberville and Pass Christian. The Bay's individual winners were Charles Necaise, who took high jump and 440 yd. run, Wiltz, 220 yard run, and Johnson, shot put.

Bay High's Tigers are slated to take part in a track and field tilt at Perkinston this afternoon.

Jones thinclads finish third in meet at Lacombe

Valena C. Jones truckmen placed third in their first meet of the season Saturday when they visited Lacombe, La., for an eight-team event. First place went to Hammond, La., and the hosts collected second.

Robert Whavers, Ulyles Sheppard, James Peters and Edward formed the Jones relay squad and placed second in the 440-yd. event with a time of 0:44.9 and second in the 880 at 1:33.8. Other second place positions going to VCJ boys were the sprint medley, which they finished in 1:36.6, and the broad jump in which Emmett Acker soared 18.2 ft. Alexander Acker and Norman Wilkerson were third and fourth, respectively, in the 880-yd. run.

Boy and girl track and fielders visited Locker High at Wiggins Wednesday for a dual meet. Tuesday they will host Locker, Randolph High of Pass Christian, and Chahta-lms of Lacombe in a four-school series at St. Stanislaus Stadium. April 25 the Jones team will take part in the relays at Locker, and they will wind up the season May 1, playing host for the Southern Mississippi Athletic Conference games at St. Stanislaus.

INTERSQUAD ENDS PLAY With white scoring 12-0 over intersquad Red, Rodney Wilkerson's two touchdowns on Monday wrapped up Logtown School's spring football training.

BAY CLOBBER SSC 13-8

Bay High baseballers overcame St. Stanislaus in a Tuesday night game on the Rockchaw home diamond with a final score of 13-8. The Rocks got off to a good start, scoring five of their runs in the first inning and the other three in the third, allowing the Tigers only one four-bagger up to that point. But SSC was shut out for the rest of the game as the Bay sluggers beat out a 2-9-0-1 scoreboard.

After a hard-played 18 holes, it's good to settle down on a soft chair in the club house and add up the score with friends. After time for the drink that scores with every golfer—cool, thirst-quenching beer? It's great to relax with, great for refreshment for taste. So whatever your sport—baseball—swimming or tennis—relax with the zestful taste of beer.

Spring 1965 in Hancock County arrived a little later than expected, but certainly in a physical sense, things are just about as they were in years gone by. Azaleas, camellias and every other thing gave forth about on schedule, the grass grew in one short week and birds sang sweetly from every bush. But that's just where any resemblance to spring ends with a screaming halt. No longer will summer residents be able to stir the tots loose on the beach and seawall. They will be able to tie up one side of the beach road while heavily unloading and launching boats and the reason is one of simple mathematics. . . traffic, especially on weekends, has more than quadrupled and if anyone is in doubt just try to cross the street during rush hours. . . imagine, having rush hours here of all places—but just take one minute to count passing cars and note that about one out of four has an out-of-state license, which means that more newcomers have arrived and they're pouring in daily. Many of our friends who have been coming to the coast for eons rue the fact that their once peaceful haven has turned into a rat race of activity, and we sympathize, but have to confess that having so many more people doing so many more things makes writing this bit one heck of a lot easier!

On the ailing list

We'll start with get well wishes. 'Mac' McCutcheon is doing better after spending several days in Hancock General for treatment of a heart disorder. Miss Ervina Osbourne is out again after being confined to her home for a couple of weeks and Raymond Talbot was taken to a New Orleans hospital late Thursday. Polly Fagen was home for the weekend looking wonderful in that most becoming Auburn wig. She purchased it as a necessity following surgery, but likes the new look so well, she's ordered another.

Winnie and Jack Holm, who dined out Thursday night, had just received a phone call from former resident Pat (Mrs. Scotty) Taylor from San Francisco. It seemed that Pat felt the necessity to ask Winnie how to cook some delicacy.

Welcome back Beverly and John Binegar who have returned from South Dakota and are now making their home on Terrace Avenue in Waveland. The Binegars were elated when John was transferred back to this area.

Bob Whitson surprised wife Elora with a surprise party on her birthday Thursday, April 8. He had promised to take her to dinner at Haverly's, and had asked some friends to join them for cake, etc. She was really amazed when she received not only a large cake from Bob, but another from Bessie and Lester. The arrival of an old friend, Tom Hotchkiss with whom Bob had worked in Denver, who had flown in from California, made the evening complete. Sharing the cakes were also Shannon and Tom Roseberry, Patsy and Lamar Hale, Ann and Henry Deville, Frank Smith and your ever-hungry reporter.

Harold Allen, Bill's Dollar Store manager, is turning into one of our better assistant reporters. He turned up with a gentleman who had just landed a 45-pound drum by the name of J.R. Richards, and persuaded him to pose for our camera.

Jake Jacob, who considers any temperature above 40 hot, having been accustomed to North Canadian climes, couldn't resist taking an early swim. He didn't catch cold fortunately, but it took the best part of a week and a visit to the doctor to get the water out of his ears!

Population explosion

Newcomers Club was forced to cancel the much anticipated trip to Al Hirt's champagne luncheon as so many couldn't arrange to go on that day. Babies seem to be the main difficulty—a shortage of sitters for those already here and the anticipated arrival of several others.

Speaking of babies the population explosion goes on and on. Noleen and Billy Breland's is almost due—Linda and Freddie Bourgeois' second is expected in June and Jill and Gerald Gex will become parents again early next month.

Your reporter finally got around to taking the grand tour of Ethel and Nolan Ladner's new home. It's lovely and any flower lover should drop by and see the yard which is filled with the largest, healthiest flowers, shrubbery and fruit trees we've seen of late, and the grass looks like a bright green carpet.

The most excited group of young men around Waveland is the Sea Scout troop and the reason for their elation is their very own 'yacht' which was towed in by the Sea Scout Cutter Flying Cloud of New Orleans on Saturday.

Womanless wedding is cast

Joe Marochino will emcee the Womanless Wedding, sponsored by Hancock General Hospital auxiliary to be presented Saturday, April 24. Johnny Scaffide will hear vows of bride Johnette Rutherford and Red Glass, her spouse to be Fredine Wagner will be maid of honor, Norman Renshaw is best man; Tom Logue, ringbearer; Josie Viguerie, flower girl; Budine Phillips and Edsie Porter, junior bridesmaids, and Walter Rausch, the rejected suitor. We'll have to continue the rest of the cast next week as just the thought of the above in feminine attire has us too fractured to continue writing on the subject!

Welcome back to the Bay Gayle and Gerry Bienvenu who sold their Handboro home in such a hurry that Gayle and children Robbie and Leslie are visiting her parents, the Leo Parkers, while Gerry aids workmen in renovations on the house they have purchased here.

Better get out your dancing shoes. A live band will furnish music for the first adult dance of the season at C i e r m o n t Lakeshore Youth Center on Saturday, May 8.

New in town

Another new resident to greet—Jay Jarboe, native New Yorker, is here with MTO and resides at Bay Royale. . . and at the same time we'll bid his erstwhile roommate, Nunzio Caruso, a reluctant farewell—he's returning to the Empire state. In case anyone's curious, he is not related to Enrico, and insists he can't carry a tune!

One of the best laughs we've had in ages was thanks to a note from Bryan Reed of Hancock Bank's travel department who tactfully pulled us up short on a recent good. We'll quote verbatim: "I have noticed several references in your column to the fact that Mrs. June Thomas-Hall is enjoying her stay in Nassau. This fills me with cold chills of apprehension because I sold her a ticket to Jamaica." Alright Bryan, we really knew she was going to Jamaica, but for some darn reason always got the two resorts mixed up!

Baby notes

And more about babies—Pamela and David Treutel's first, a girl, arrived at 1:30 a.m. Monday, April 12, at Hancock General weighing five pounds, 11 ounces. At time of writing there is still some indecision about the young lady's name. Zelda and Ken Waltman will entertain over Easter holidays her brother, Dr. Vernon R. Crowell, wife Lorraine and children Rusty, Sissy, Kissy and Canday of New Orleans. Visiting Gladys and Harry Baxter at their Lakeshore home are their son Harry, Jr., and wife Kay. Kay will return to her home in New York while Harry is in Japan doing his duties at the American Consulate.

Another brand new baby, Eleanor and Harold Bordages' second daughter, was born at 1:10 a.m. Tuesday, April 13, at Hancock General. The tiny one weighed in at four pounds, 13 ounces, and will be christened Kelly Ann. Rubie and John Bordages are paternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey O'Farrell, maternal. Carmelita Saucier leaves Saturday for Orlando, Fla., where she has gone to be with her granddaughter, little Debbie Glass, 11, who will have major surgery on April 19. Debbie, daughter of Warrant Officer and Mrs. Norman Glass, suffered a severe blow to her forehead when accidentally struck with a golf club last fall, and the operation is to replace the damaged skull with part of a rib bone. We'll send her sincere best wishes for a rapid recovery. Evelyn (Mrs. Ralph) Fleming is up and out again after spending several days in Hancock General for treatment of a virus.

Animal notes

Pat Viguerie called to nominate the rat link of the week... the stinker is whoever struck a small beagle-type puppy on Beach Blvd. near Nicholson Avenue in the heat of the day last Thursday and did not even stop long enough to put the injured animal in the shade. Kit (Mrs. James) Senter fortunately drove by, picked up the pup and took it to Bob Akers for treatment. Despite the fact that it was suffering from heat and thirst, in addition to other injuries, it's recuperating at Kit's home and still being treated by Bob. So if anyone has lost a small male dog of this variety, please call Mrs. Senter as she has several animals of her own, but was too kindhearted to ignore the puppy's plight.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY—The first of many groups of colorfully clad girls following along the seashore, appearing as self spray dabbed into their faces; flirty white pyracantha blossoms like hundreds of tiny powder puffs blooming all over the place; an apparently non-hunting type dog calmly observing two squirrels scurrying over the ground and sounds of little night crickets once again reactivated by monthly days and not too cool nights.

Wilkerson wins tourney

In a thrilling climax Lou Wilkerson won the final two-pin match against Faye Monti to take the Bay St. Louis Women's Handicap Bowling Tourney by two pins. Third and fourth positions in the series, which wound up Saturday night at Tower Lanes, were Tor Stevens and Jan Snider respectively.

Making good use of her 104-pin handicap for two lines, Mrs. Wilkerson bowled a score of 150 in the first 10 frames of the finale against 135 for Miss Monti who was handicapped at 88.

Going into the last line with a 31-pin disadvantage Miss Monti, suffering from abrasions on her bowling hand, collected strikes in the first two frames and began chipping away at Mrs. Wilkerson's lead. Mrs. Wilkerson made only one strike, in the fourth frame, but spares in the first, second, sixth and seventh kept her from slipping back too rapidly.

Faye rolled a spare in the fifth and added nine pins in the sixth frame. Miss Monti made strikes back-to-back in the eighth and ninth frames, Pandemonium nearly developed among the spectators on the first rolls of the last box, when both girls left splits. Mrs. Wilkerson's a 5-7 and Miss Monti's an 8-10, which were their first and only ones in the game.

Technically, the match was still wide open with Mrs. Wilkerson leading by a single pin, and no one breathed after she knocked off one pin with her last ball but failed to make good the split. Noticeably shaken, Miss Monti blew her shot and the final handicap scores stood Wilkerson 380, Monti 378.

Next event in the spring bowling series at Tower Lanes will be men's scratch tournament after Easter.

Softball league sets three tourney dates

Bay St. Louis Softball League has scheduled its eighth annual pre-season tournament for May 9 at Elwood Memorial Park in Waveland. The date and other plans for the season were fixed when the league met Monday night at the Knock Knock Club.

In addition, two invitational tournaments for league teams are planned before the season opens. St. John's Church of Lakeshore will host one event April 25 while Chateau Sau will have one May 2 on the Waveland field.

Umpires have not yet been obtained for the regular softball season, which will run from

May 24 through July 26 at Bay St. Louis, and league president Billy Murphy is asking qualified persons interested in the positions contact him or any sponsor member of the league.

Assignments of duties for the kickoff tournament were made as follows: Travis' Lounge, advertising; Southern Realty, beverages; Trapani's, food; CYO, field readiness; St. John's Men's Club of Lakeshore, cleanup; Shop and Chateau Sau, umpires; Jerry and Mary's Restaurant and Lounge, Pearlinton Barber.

Next business meeting of the league was set for 7:30 p.m. May 3 at the Knock Knock Club.

Trapani squad wins tourney

J.T. Lohman and Harrison Morgan from the Bay were aboard the Trapani bandwagon Monday night as the Bay St. Louis sponsored Knock Knock took over in the annual Kingsley-Jax basketball tournament in New Orleans, defeating the favored New Orleans Tuzados in a tight final tilt by 69-64.

Randy White with 27 in the final game points was high scorer for Trapani and was named most valuable player of the series. Other two-figure men for the winning quintet were Don Wilson with 16 and Jimmy Shields who had 15. The Kingsley-Jax victory wrapped up the first year for the New Orleans branch of the Knock Knocks who enjoyed a season record of 10 wins against three losses.
